

Every frozen configuration along the path has a valid compact ($|B| \leq 3$) exact blanket, yet moving at finite rate transiently and reversibly elevates leakage above 0.

